

INSPIRING WORSHIP ALL WEEK

K E Y	“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” Luke 4:18-19

A P P L Y	The words from Luke-the pronouncement Jesus gives to those gathered in the synagogue in this Sunday’s Gospel speak of God’s plan and Jesus’ role in it. He outlines his “agenda” and we see him living it out every day that follows. Today in this country, our response to the poor, those living in captivity or under oppressive conditions is varied or often deeply divided, sometimes even along political lines. Yet Christ did not come to save us individually, apart from one another. How might we better live into Jesus’s words with our own lives, taking action and speaking out about the things that were important to him in his earthly ministry?
P R A Y E R	God of justice- We give thanks for the words your Son Jesus spoke and for the promise he showed to those who needed hope. Help us to see and respond to the needs of this world. Guide us to help where and however we can, so that all people can have a glimpse of your limitless love and grace. Be with us each day as we journey together. Amen.
