A P P L Y	Those who encountered John the Baptist were said to be “filled with expectation” about his true identity. When he instead pointed to another, what must they have thought? As he later baptized Jesus, and the skies opened and a voice from heaven revealed to them their true Messiah, how might this also have changed their expectations and understanding of who they were looking for? Think about a time in your own life where God provided far beyond what you may have been expecting.
P R A Y E R	Gracious God- Thank you for the gift of baptism, for claiming us as your own and for the promise of a lifetime with you. The gift of your Son, our Savior, changed the world. Help us to show the same love he did to others wherever you would have us go. Uphold us, encourage us and guide us as continue this new year together. Amen.
