PASTOR CLAY'S COLUMN

Dear Trinity Friends,

How beautiful it was to see so many people in worship over the holidays. The music was splendid and there was joy in the air. We sometimes lament that more people don't come to worship regularly during the rest of the year, rather than being part of what a priest friend refers to as the Lily and Poinsettia Crowd. Still, I am very grateful that so many do come, even if only a few times per year.

The reasons for declining attendance across the nation are many. I have come to realize that the 200 or so that come to worship each week are representative of at least 600 people whom we now call "regular" worshipers. Folks just take turns being here while life continues to pull them in many other directions. We had first communion on December 22. When we were trying to select a date that worked for everyone, one of the mom's looked at her calendar with hope. Then she said, "Well, we have hockey that day—but I think we could skip that for first communion." I rejoiced—and I declared: "Wow, that is one Sunday when church wins out over hockey!"

Thanks to all who provided special music and decorations for our Christmas season. These wonderful people continue doing their good work, leading and assisting with worship all year around. We can count on them to be here whenever you are able to be with us. I pray that worship may win out a little more often over sports and other things. But, know that whenever we gather, Christ is with us and the time together is sacred and blessed. Happy New Year!

~Pastor Clay

Report from the Worship Staff on Worship Experiments

Last fall, the we announced that we were going to try some experiments relating to worship. Here is what we discovered.

Experiment with shortening the 10:45 a.m. Sunday service: This did not work out well. The only way to keep the service to 45 minutes, we found, was if we omitted Holy Communion regularly. We did choose fewer hymn stanzas and made some other adjustments, but in the end, that did not save much time. The closest we came was about 50 minutes a time or two. From now on, we will continue to streamline things where possible, but we won't try to continue to aim for a 45 minute service.

Experiment with a Wednesday night 5:45 service: This has worked out very well. We have had a quite regular group of people coming on Wednesdays. It is usually between 12 and 24 people. And, they are people of all ages, including youth and infants. It appears that having this option for people is very attractive, which means that we will happily continue the service.

Experiment with a Wednesday educational opportunity: We have tried this because we have been attempting to "take back Wednesdays." Since the fall, we have been offering a study group called Exploring our Faith. To date, we have looked at Exploring our Neighbor's Faith, Exploring Hard Questions about our Faith, and a number of other interesting topics. We have had a regular attendance of 8-10 people for these discussion and intend to continue them, beginning on January 15.

The nice thing about experiments is that whether they fail or succeed, you always learn something important. We are glad to have tried these worship and education experiments and have learned how important it is for people to have alternative times for worship and devotion. Come check out our Wednesday offerings, perhaps at least on the 3rd Wednesday of the month when we also have a congregational potluck (at 5:00 p.m.). The service is completely different from Sunday, so you won't hear or sing the same things as the past Sunday. Thank you.

~The Trinity Worship Staff

You may sign up for 2020 Altar Flowers on the chart in the narthex. A variety of dates are still open. Bev's Floral designs the beautiful floral arrangements each Sunday. The rate is $40.00 per week.

LEARN

Recently I saw a humorous quip stating: "I was going to clean house but then I realized that this book isn't going to read itself." And we've all probably encountered the "So many books, so little time" comment. January seems like a good month to take these to heart and catch up on some reading.

Trinity Library has a large collection of fiction, including classics and newly published titles. Some will cause deep thought, others are light reading. The committee chooses books we think will be meaningful and positive, and are well-written. We encourage everybody to browse the shelves or look at the loose-leaf catalogs for favorite authors and titles.

The library committee is looking forward in 2020 to filling the Little Free Library that will be installed near the Little Free Pantry when weather allows. This is a new project to reach out to the community, echoing the 2019 open house theme: Library Outreach.

In 2019 we continued to refresh the collection by removing worn or outdated books so the library will be more useable and useful. We added about 80 new titles as well.

Continuing library committee members are: Kathy Bryer, Pam Enerson, Pat Gerbitz, Jane Gjevre, Wanda Lay, Cathy Palmi, Sharon Rothman, Sybil Strupp (chair). If you have comments or questions about the library or good title suggestions, you can contact any of us.

Stay warm and cozy with a good book!

Sybil Strupp, for the library committee

TLC PRESCHOOL

Trinity Learning Center & Preschool ended the year with two amazing programs, the Center Christmas Program and the 4K Holiday Program. Both programs were well done due to the extra spectacular work of the TLC&P staff and children and the great attendance by family and friends of TLC&P.

2019 was an incredible year for TLC&P. We, the Trinity Learning Center staff and I would like to say "Thank You" to everyone who helps support the learning center throughout the year.

2020 looks to be a promising year. Enrollment is up. We are starting the year with full enrollment and a waiting list for most rooms through 2020.

4K Registration for the 2020-2021 school year will be the week of February 24, 2020. If you have a child entering 4K

Pre-K Registration

please consider enrolling them in our 4K program. We have been given a distinguished rating from the Stevens Point School District throughout the last few years, which means we go above and beyond the expectations of the district curriculum. If you have any questions about how to enroll or what the program is all about, please stop in or call the Learning Center at 715-344-2227.

Happy New Year!

Amy Kurkowski, TLC&P

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Happy New Year! Welcome to 2020. In December, "Christmas Hope" was presented by our Sunday School students. The children did a wonderful job in presenting the true meaning of Christmas to the congregation. We would like to thank the readers and actors, Katie Wroblewski for playing so beautifully for the pageant, Pastor Clay and Todd Lewis, as well as the parents and siblings who helped throughout the show and provided tasty refreshments. It was a truly blessed event.

Sunday School will resume on Sunday, January 5. Students will study Moses and the 10 Commandments. Adam Hamilton states, "As theological statements each tells us something about God, and God's will for humanity. They offer a vision for how we live, love and relate to one another. And they help us to know the boundaries as we seek to live our lives. They functioned in this way for the ancient Israelites, and they continue to function this way for us today." We wish all a happy, healthy, and prosperous New Year!

SERVE

Grocery Donations— Operation Bootstrap is the recipient of our grocery donations during January. Their shelves need restocking, especially with cans of soup, vegetables, fruit, meals-in-a-can and meats. They can also use dried beans, especially lentils. Non-food items such as shampoo, body wash, toothpaste, laundry detergent and paper products are also greatly appreciated.

Thanks for your donations of nonfood items to the Interfaith Food Pantry during December. Your donations spread the joy of Christmas to the IFP recipients.

~Janet Swiston for Global & Local Outreach Committee

Loose Change— SPARE-A-Dime

January—Stevens Point Warming Center

For many of us, when we are cold, we have several choices--warmer clothes, grabbing another blanket or even turning up the heat. Unfortunately, some in our Stevens Point community do not have such options. To help keep our community members warm, our January Loose Change/Spare-A-Dime donation will go to the Stevens Point Warming Center. The Warming Center operates November through April. Last winter, the Center served over 65 guests, an increase over the previous year's guest count of 22. This year, the demand will be even greater.

Your spare change will be used to purchase important supplies that need frequent replacement such as pillows, sleeping bags and cots. With the Hope Center at capacity, the demand for a warm place to sleep is high. Please be generous with your coins to warm both hearts and bodies this winter.

Dear friends,

All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation. 2 Corinthians 5:18

In early November a five-day training of trainers (TOT) workshop in conflict resolution and peace building was held at the Lutheran Center in Johannesburg, South Africa. The workshop was a joint venture between the Lutheran Communion in Southern Africa (LUCSA) with 15 member churches in ten countries and expert trainers from the Ecumenical Church Leaders' Forum (ECLF) based in Zimbabwe.

Member churches were invited to each send two representatives. Interactive sessions included demystifying conflict, tools for analysing the manifestations and root causes of conflict, active listening and effective communication skills, understanding power, dialogue, mediation, the importance of inner healing and the nexus between peace and development. Daily sessions opened and closed with devotions. The LUCSA / ECLF training manual Paths to Peace was officially launched on Friday Nov. 8.

Many participants indicated that the “healing” session was one of the most important and transforming experiences at the workshop and acknowledged that further training would be helpful for them to be effective trainers of trainers.

As the ELCA we are seeking to be a visible church deeply committed to working ecumenically and with other people of faith for justice, peace and reconciliation in our communities and around the world. (Goal Four of the ELCA's Strategic Directions 2025 document CALLED FORWARD TOGETHER IN CHRIST).

ELCA - Global Mission through Diakonia/World Hunger Funding is therefore supporting the collaborative work of LUCSA and ECLF in providing training and the sharing of resources in the region and on the African continent to promote conflict resolution and peacebuilding programs.

Thank you for your prayers and support and your participation in God's mission locally and globally.

Yours faithfully,

Rev. Dr. Philip Knutson

Trinity Quiltmakers

IN ETHIOPIA, FAMILIES IN DESPERATE NEED WELCOME QUILTS AND CARE KITS

Can you imagine having nothing? This is the reality for families in Ethiopia who have had to flee from their homes to escape ethnic conflict with only the safety of their children as their sole concern. At the Kera refugee camp in Ethiopia—now home to 5,000 people—the need is extraordinary.

Women there express their deep and heartfelt gratitude for quilts that help the children stay warm and the items in the Personal Care Kits help to keep families clean. Families are so appreciative that they treat the quilts reverently, refusing to put them on the ground. Because we make the quilts by hand, putting love and care into each stitch, these people see the quilts as a personal gift and treat them as such.

The quilts and care kits have helped to ease the suffering of misplaced persons. LWR says, “Thank you for comforting families in their times of greatest need.”

Our quilting days in January are Tuesday, January 14th and Thursday, January 23rd. We begin at 9 a.m., break for tea/coffee and treats at 10:30 a.m., have lunch at 12:30 p.m. and work until 3:00 p.m. You can come for the whole day or for as long as you’d like. If you are adding something new to your volunteer list for the New Year, consider joining us for quilting.
