A P P L Y	As our world continues its journey through a pandemic, there are days each of us might find our hope-meters running low. Uncertainties about the future can make it difficult to really plan and look forward to much. Paul assures us though, in his letter to the Romans, that hope is truly found in who we are as children of God. Even if we cannot see what’s up ahead, that hope and trust in our Savior keeps us on a path forward toward a future filled with promise. What glimpses of God’s assurance and hope have you experienced during this difficult time?
P R A Y E R	Sustaining God-Calm the storms around us as we patiently wait in hope. Help us to continue to trust in your promise and presence in our lives. May we through our word and our actions share of that same hope with others along the way. Amen.
