A P P L Y	Five small loaves of bread and two fish couldn’t possibly be enough to feed a hungry crowd of thousands... or could they? In this week’s Gospel, what is seemingly insufficient, in Jesus’s hands, becomes an abundance. When you and I freely and generously share of whose we are and all that we have been given, Christ’s love multiplies our actions and the impact can prove more than we could ever imagine. Think of a time when what you offered might have felt insignificant, but was revealed to be more than enough to the one(s) who received it?
P R A Y E R	God of Abundance-Thank you for the many gifts that fill our lives. We are so grateful. Work in our hearts each day to share of those blessings with others. Help us and guide us always. Amen.
