A P P L Y	In this week’s reading from Thessalonians, Paul seeks to encourage those living out their faith there and he prays they remain steadfast through whatever challenges they may face. We, too, are called to be advocates for fellow followers as they share in this labor of faith and love. On our own journeys, the prayers of family, friends and even strangers have proved powerful and helped see us through. Who might you lift up in prayer today that could use some help finding their footing in the rockiness of life?
P R A Y E R	Loving God- Help us each day to remember and give thanks for all those who have prayed for us, the known and unknown faithful whose witness cheered us on. May our own prayers help encourage and sustain others on their journeys. Bless all of your children as we seek to live for You. Amen.
