A P P L Y	The past year was filled with its dark moments. Our world and our lives endured an unrelenting virus. which led to unspeakable tragedy and untold emotional and financial hardship. Add to that continued news of political infighting, racism and civil unrest. As we enter 2021, it would be safe to say we are all looking for a little light. Despite the fear and anxiety we might feel in the uncertainty of this time, God’s light illuminates any darkness breaking through the clouds to help us see the promise and possibility in all that is to come. Where do you see glimpses of that light in the new year?
P R A Y E R	Faithful God- In these days that seem so dark, grant to the reassurance of your light come to earth –a light that is always with us. Help us too to redirect and reflect Christ’s light of love and hope to all who may need it each day. Amen.
