A P P L Y	Jesus appearing to the disciples on the Road to Emmaus following his resurrection must have been unsettling. So much so that initially they fail to even recognize him as their friend. In touching the marks on Jesus' hands and feet and sharing a meal together, their doubts give way to trust and their minds and hearts are opened to be witnesses who go and share all they have seen and heard. Think about an experience in your life, where at first you too may have missed seeing the face of God in another?
P R A Y E R	Dear Jesus- We give thanks for those first witnesses who shared with those near and far of your life, death and resurrection. Help us to be present day disciples, faithful communicators of your love each day who help point the world to you. Amen.
