A P P L Y	Poet Maya Angelou once said, "Love recognizes no barriers. It jumps hurdles, leaps fences, penetrates walls to arrive at its destination full of hope” What does a love like that look like? This week in our Gospel Reading from John, we hear of such a love...the love of God. It is an all-encompassing, never-ending love that created and claimed us, and sent Jesus to earth to live, die and rise again for us. A love that is there for us matter our circumstances and in spite of our questions and doubts. A love modeled by Jesus and steered by the power of the Holy Spirit that shows us how we can love others too. Think of an uncertain time in your life when knowing God’s great love for you, made all the difference?
P R A Y E R	Dear God- We give thanks for your amazing love which created and sustains us. Thank you for the gift of Jesus that redeemed us and the winds of the Spirit which guide our steps in sharing of that love each day. Continue to hold us in your love. Amen.
