A P P L Y	The winds and waves of the storm the disciples sailed into as they crossed the Sea of Galilee left them fearing for their lives. Storms of a more personal kind can quickly appear in the midst of our days surrounding us and clouding the way forward. When we find ourselves struggling to stay afloat, we should remember (what the disciples so easily forgot) ...the One who has never left our boat. Jesus' words brought silence to that storm and calm to his followers' thoughts. We, too, can continue to have faith in his presence in our times of distress. Who are the other gifts of God-family or friends-who you can always count on to be steadying presences in your life?
P R A Y E R	Faithful God- We are so grateful that during those storms in our lives, you never leave us. Grant us peace when we struggle to find it and hope when it seems so far away. Continue to watch over us and keep us from danger. In your name we pray. Amen.
