A P P L Y	Paul tells us that God chose us, “destined us for adoption as his children through Jesus Christ”. How then should we live our lives? If God chose us as his children and we have received the wonderful gift of Jesus Christ, should we not do everything in our power to be worthy of these gifts? Shouldn’t we, on a daily basis, do all we can to honor these gifts through our daily activities and thoughts? What small actions can you do in the coming days to show your appreciation for these amazing gifts?
P R A Y E R	Lord, I know I am not worthy of the wonderful gifts you have bestowed on me. Help me to live a life that shows appreciation for these gifts. Help me to make life on this planet a little better for all my neighbors. Show me how to care for people and to be there for them and how to love others. Amen.
