A P P L Y	Bartimaeus, the blind beggar, truly believed Jesus could help him, so he did all he could to get his attention. When others tried to quiet Bartimaeus, thinking he wasn’t important enough to be noticed, his cries grew even louder. His persistence was rewarded, though, as Jesus saw and heard him and drove the darkness from his eyes and inspired him to follow. Think of a time in your life when your own “faithful persistence” paid off.
P R A Y E R	Dear God-Help us in our lives to have the faith of Bartimaeus. Open our eyes and hearts each day to the needs of the world around us, that no one’s cries for mercy and healing go unanswered. In your name we pray. Amen.
