

INSPIRING WORSHIP ALL WEEK

K E Y	"Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices." Luke 15:4-5

A P P L Y	This Sunday we again remember the tragic events of September 11th, 2001. When the planes struck the World Trade Center and the Twin Towers fell, families and friends in New York frantically searched for hours and even days, not yet knowing the whereabouts or fate of their loved ones. Like the shepherd who sought out the one lost sheep in this week's Gospel, their efforts were relentless, and they never gave up hope. For those who were reunited, you can imagine the joy! In the darkness and lost-ness of our days, we too must cling to hope. That ultimate hope is found in the promise of a new day with our shepherd Jesus, who will never stop in his desire for our lives and hearts and rejoices again and again when we are found. Consider a time when you may have felt truly lost and Jesus' presence and promises found you?
P R A Y E R	Loving God-Help us remember that we are never apart from your love. When all hope seems lost and the path uncertain, we have your never-ending presence, guiding us back home to you. In your name we pray. Amen.
