A P P L Y	When Jesus first appeared to all the disciples as they were hiding behind locked doors after his resurrection, and they saw that he was alive they rejoiced and were exuberant. But Thomas was not there and would not believe. A week later Jesus appeared again and this time Thomas was with them, and he believed. Was Thomas any different than the rest of the disciples? When Jesus first appeared to them, he showed them his hands and side. Isn't this the same that he did for Thomas? Have you ever been in a situation like this, where you needed to see proof that what was being told to you was true? If you were in the disciple's situation, how do you think you would have reacted if someone told you Jesus was alive, but you had not seen him? Would you believe? Jesus said, "Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have come to believe." Would you be one of the blessed?
P R A Y E R	Heavenly Father, help me to believe. Help me to see the signs all around me that show me you are here. Help me as I pray, "I believe, help my unbelief." Amen
