

INSPIRING WORSHIP ALL WEEK

K E Y	“The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me.” John 17:22-23

A P P L Y	This week’s Gospel Reading from John is known as Jesus’s High Priestly Prayer, in which he prays for his disciples (and for us) as he prepares to return to God. He wants his followers to stick together, to remain united as doing so will bear greater witness to God’s love in the world. ‘They will know we are Christians’ more “by our love” than all the ways we as the Church disagree with each other. In life, when have you felt most “united” with a group and together how did that help you accomplish more than you may have first thought possible?
P R A Y E R	Dear God-Even with all of the ways we might feel divided, help us to always remember our mutual love for you as we continue to share that love with the world. In your name we pray. Amen.
