A P P L Y	Sometimes when we find ourselves sad or discouraged, we need a little nudge, a reminder that we are never truly alone in our suffering. This Sunday as we consider the image of the Trinity (The Father, Son and Holy Spirit) may it help us to know and trust that the ever-present “Three-In-One” provides peace and hope no matter what we are facing. We can be sustained by the God who created us, the son, Jesus who saved us and the Holy Spirit which continues to guide our path. Think about a time you experienced hope in the middle of life’s storms?
P R A Y E R	Dear God-Thank you for the gifts of peace and hope as we journey through this life. Help us to trust in you through any troubles we might face. Fill us with strength each day and sustain us with your love. Amen.

Devotions written by Trinity members.
