A P P L Y	The houses in our neighborhoods may be as different as the neighbors who live in them. Some neighbors we know personally... others we might not know all that well. We tend to think of our neighbors as those who live "by us", but the definition of neighbor Jesus calls us to be in greater relationship encompasses those who live far beyond the boundaries of our street or block. We are to love all of God's children as we love ourselves. At times that can be easy... other times hard. How can we see past that which might separate us? What does loving your neighbor look like in your life?
P R A Y E R	Dear God-Despite our differences, help us to more greatly appreciate the things we have in common with those around us. Guide our hearts each day as we share of your love with our neighbors near and far. Amen.
