

INSPIRING WORSHIP ALL WEEK

K E Y	“You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.” Matthew 5:14-15

A P P L Y	This week the Winter Olympics will kick-off in Milano and Corina, Italy. The Opening Ceremony will feature athletes from around the world coming together in a celebration of sports and community. Part of the event, for the first time, will feature two Olympic cauldrons being lit simultaneously, both from a flame that has been carried by 10,000 torch runners on its journey there. In Matthew’s Gospel, Jesus calls us to be the “light of the world.” As we run the race set before us, we are tasked with being torch bearers for God, bearing God’s love and light far and wide for all to see. We do so not for ourselves, but for those in our community who need some light for their path. Think of a time someone shared of their light with you and in doing so helped you arrive where you wanted to be?
P R A Y	Dear Jesus-In this world that is often dark, remind us each day of the light we can be. Help us to shine, even when it isn’t easy, knowing that by the light we do share, others may see... and know your love. In your name we pray. Amen.
