

INSPIRING WORSHIP ALL WEEK

K E Y	“You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. People do not light a lamp and put it under the bushel basket; rather, they put it on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.” Matthew 5:14-15

A P P L Y	In our Gospel reading, as Jesus’s face shines brightly as he is transfigured on the mountain that day, God’s voice is heard from the heavens, loudly proclaiming of his love and pride for this, his son. This experience proved to be what those early disciples needed, to fully see who Jesus was and what his (and their) earthly journeys might hold. We aren’t on a mountaintop sitting with Jesus, yet we still hear echoes of God’s voice each day. Where and from whom do you hear the voice of God in your life? What is it telling you?
P R A Y	Ever-Present God-Help us to cut through the noise and excess that so often fill our days, that we might listen and hear your voice and it’s call for our lives. Continue to guide our steps as we follow you. In your name we pray. Amen.
