| A P P L Y | Lutheran pastor and author Nadia Bolz-Weber once said, “Every time we draw a line between us and others, Jesus is always on the other side of it.” This month, we celebrate the diversity found among God’s children, that ALL are made in the image of God. God’s love is truly for everyone, but in our world today, not everyone sees God’s love as all-inclusive, Some reserve it only for those who are like them or those they think are deserving. Jesus’ life and ministry, however, was one of radical inclusivity-drawing circles to include people, not lines excluding them. We are called to go and do the same. Have you ever shared a conversation with someone who felt excluded by the church? How did their story and perspective impact you? |
| P R A Y | God of Love-We praise you because we are fearfully and wonderfully made. May our words and actions create spaces and places of welcome and acceptance in your church so that all may know of your never-ending love for them. In your name we pray. Amen. |
